

Position: Project Manager

Location: Bangkok, Thailand

Job Description:

- Leading the project team allocated to the project, defining main guidelines and allocating project tasks
- Managing project execution follow schedule, quality and accomplish as assigned
- Motivating and monitoring internal and external resources to accomplish all tasks and milestones
- Providing performance feedback regarding allocated resources working on projects to management team
- Defining, jointly with the Project Controls department, all project plan documents, including scope and schedule and project risk management plans
- Ensuring that the project execution meets best practices
- Monitoring and controlling project progress and efficient resource utilization
- Monitoring and controlling project documentation (VDRL)
- Acting as key contact for the customer and an escalation point for project issues.
- Building and maintaining strong relationships with internal and external
- Ensuring to meet clients deadline for all project schedules and activities.

Qualifications:

- Bachelor's or Master's degree – preferably in an Engineering major – Electrical Power or others related field
- At least 10 years' experience of project execution, project management of substation
- Strong mechanical - engineering background
- Good interpersonal, managerial, coordination & communication skills, and self-motivated
- Experience in dealing with a multi-cultural workforce preferred
- Excellent of spoken & written English and possess computer proficiency

We invite qualified Thai and Expat candidates to submit their resume stating their present and expected salary via APPLY NOW